

The Harry S. Rintoul Memorial Award

Best New Manitoban Play at the Winnipeg Fringe Theatre Festival

The Harry S. Rintoul Memorial Award was established in 2002 in honour of Manitoba playwright and Founding Artistic Director of Theatre Projects Manitoba, Harry S. Rintoul.

In order to be eligible for this award:

1. The play must have been written by a Manitoba resident.
2. The play must be an original script which means no adaptations, no stand-up, no improvisational or sketch comedy.
3. The play cannot have been produced before. It may have had a public reading/public workshop, but the 2014 Fringe production must be its premiere.
4. Entries are submitted by 8 am Wednesday, July 16 (opening day of the Fringe).

To submit your play for consideration, all you need to do is send a request by email to mbplay@mymts.net with the following info:

Subject Line: Request to be considered

Content of email: Title, venue, and dates/times of performances.

You will receive a reply confirming your entry.

For more information: mbplay@mymts.net or 204-942-8941

Past Winners

- 2013 Jessy Ardern and Ariel Levine – The Hound of Ulster
- 2012 Scott Douglas – The Touring Test
- 2011 Jessy Ardern and Ariel Levine – Sigurd the Dragonslayer
- 2010 Muriel Hogue – Scar Tissue
- 2009 Joseph Aragon – Bloodless: The Trial of Burke and Hare
- 2008 Daniel Thau-Eleff – Remember the Night
- 2007 Ross McMillan – The Ingrates
- 2006 Stefanie Wiens – Max and Mirabelle
- 2005 Jason Neufeld – The Rise and Fall of Bloody Redemption
- 2004 Daniel Thau-Eleff – THREE RING CIRCUS: Israel, the Palestinians and My Jewish Identity
- 2003 Joseph Aragon – The Unlikely Sainthood of Madeline McKay
- 2002 Kevin Klassen - Aftertaste