ABOUT THE SHOW

Alyssa Billingsley has a Winnipeg Fringe debut with the newest iteration of her solo show, IDENTITY CRISIS! Featuring eight showings between July 17 - July 27 at Venue 4, CCFM - Pauline-Boutal Theatre.

IDENTITY CRISIS is a coalescence of music, clown, and elements of neo-bouffon greatly influenced by the works of John Turner, Mike Kennard (Mump & Smoot) and Karen Hines (Pochsy). It is a dark physical comedy that explores our relationships to one another, to the world around us, and most importantly, to ourselves.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

prizm productions is the company name under which prairie actor, singer, mover, and creator Alyssa Billingsley produces independent work.

Originally from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Alyssa is an alumna of Grant MacEwan's Theatre Arts program in Edmonton, École de Clown et Comédie Physique Francine Côté in Montréal, and the Manitoulin Conservatory of Creation and Performance.

While Alyssa has been seen in many Edmonton Fringe Festival productions and many regional theatre productions in Alberta and Saskatchewan, this will be her first time at the Winnipeg Fringe.

'This show was partially inspired from me being tired of people calling me a 'sweet little Pisces.' Sun sign astrology drives me nuts, yet astrology remains one of my favourite forms of procrastination. This show is definitely a result of that.'
